From the Director

Dear friends and colleagues

Now that Malcolm Turnbull has finally claimed victory in the 2016 Federal Election we await passage of his company tax cuts, superannuation tax increases and welfare measures left over from the last budget. Or maybe it won't be so easy.

On Wednesday 20 July 2016, 4.30-6.30pm in the Weston Theatre, Crawford School, International Visiting Fellow Professor Judith Freedman of Oxford University presents on ‘Global Corporate Tax: anti-abuse, transparency and co-operative compliance’. Professor Freedman's presentation will be followed by a discussion on Australian challenges with four outstanding panellists:

- Mr Andrew Mills, Australian Taxation Office
- Ms Kareen Payne, Board of Taxation, Treasury
- Ms Kelly Dent, Oxfam Australia
- Mr Chris Vanderkley, GE Australia and New Zealand
