

Research Fellow – Mr Rob Heferen

Deputy Secretary Energy, Department of the Environment and Energy

Rob Heferen joined the Department of the Environment and Energy on 1 August 2016 with responsibility for Energy and the Office of Energy Security. He leads on national energy policy advice – including energy efficiency, electricity and gas markets, and energy security – as well as Australia’s engagement with key international energy bodies.

Prior to this, Rob was Deputy Secretary with the Department of Industry, Innovation and Science with responsibilities for Energy, Resources and the Office of Northern Australia.

Before joining the Department of Industry, Innovation and Science, Rob was the Deputy Secretary, Revenue

Group with The Treasury from March 2011 – April 2016. Rob’s other roles in the Australian Public Service have been in Customs, the ATO, Treasury and in the Department of Families, Housing, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs.